GOOD TO KNOW

HOTEL HISTORY - THE FIRST CITY OF LIGHTS

In 1888 Tamworth became the first town in Australia & the southern hemisphere to provide its residents with electric street lighting. Surprisingly, it took another 6 years before Melbourne would switch on its electric streetlights & another 10 years before Sydney.

The hotel was built on an old power station or 'power house' site, hence the name!

The power station operated for 67 years, closing in 1955 when it could no longer meet the demands of the growing city. It was demolished in 1983 & the new Powerhouse Hotel opened on this site in December 1986.

During the building phase of the hotel, efforts were made to retain as much as possible from the original site. In our reception, foyer & throughout our rooms you will see artworks of the power station, its original staff & displays of historic electrical items. For further information regarding this unique history, visit the Tamworth Powerstation Museum in Peel Street.

The obelisk at the front of the hotel was erected to celebrate the history of Tamworth as the First City of Lights.

POWERHOUSE MOTORCYCLE MUSEUM

The Powerhouse Motorcycle Museum, located adjacent to the hotel, is a 'must see' for any bike enthusiast.

The museum houses a private collection of over 50 motorcycles in pristine order from the 1950s to the 1980s. Among the treasured models are vintage BSA Gold Stars, Ducatis, Triumphs, Hondas & Velocettes to name a few brands. The museum is also home to a rare limited edition F4 MV Agusta Series. All motorcycles have been immaculately restored to concours condition, plus there are some limited edition current models.

Open 7 days, from 9am to 4.30pm.
Closed Christmas Day.

An admission fee applies & includes complimentary tea & coffee.

COUNTRY MUSIC LEGENDS SUITES

The Powerhouse is proud to be the 'home away from home' for country artists, musicians & industry since 1986. If you're a country music fan why not stay in the Lee Kernaghan Suite or the Slim Dusty & Joy McKean Suite at the hotel.

INNKEEPERS ACT NOTICE - LOSS OR DAMAGE TO GUEST PROPERTY

(Act No 24.1968. Section 7)

Under the Innkeepers Act 1968, an innkeeper may in certain circumstances be liable to make good any loss of or damage to any guests' property even though it was not due to any fault of the innkeeper or any servant in his employ.

The liability however:

- Extends only to the property of the guests who have engaged sleeping accommodation at the inn.
- Is limited to $100 to any one guest except in the case of property which has been deposited, or offered for deposit, for safe custody.
- Does not cover motor vehicles or other vehicles of any kind or any property left in them, or horses or other live animals.

This notice does not constitute an admission either that the Act applies to these premises or that liability thereunder attaches in any particular case.
